SIX DIE AS ARMY TRUCK PLUNGES INTO CREEK

Two Captains, Four Privates and One Civilian Killed Last Night.

BODIES ARE RECOVERED TODAY

Twelve Others Injured—Drivers of Both Cars Held By Military Authorities Pending Outcome of Probe Started Today—Big Truck Goes Over Causeway at South End of Hunting Creek Bridge.

Six lives—two officers, three privates and one civilian—were snuffed out at fifteen minutes after 12 o'clock last night when a big army motor truck plunged over the causeway just at the south end of Hunting Creek bridge, and in addition twelve other men passengers were cut and bruised and suffered from shock, all being occupants of the motor truck.

The dead are: Capt. Charles L. Heilman, 5th engineers, 1265 45th, street, Brooklyn, N. Y.

Capt. Charles H. Jabureck, 2216 Newbold avenue, New York City, formerly in command of the 42nd Company, E. O. T. S., who lately was assigned to the salvage division of the supply department at Humphreys.

Corporal Albert P. Ehni, McKeesport, Pa.

Bugler Joel E. Spetz, about 28, Brooklyn, N. Y.

Charles Novotny, Petersburg, Va., civilian with only one hand.

Private Voorhie Batiste, colored, New Iberia, Lousiana.

The most seriously injured is Ernest Turner, colored, Portsmouth Va., who is at the Alexandria Hospital. Turner has a fractured hip and is being treated by Dr. S. B. Moore.

The identification of all of the dead men was not completed until after 11 o'clock this morning. The two last to be identified by Maj. Marsh were Bugler Spetz and Charles Novotny.

Eighteen Men In Truck

There were exactly eighteen men in the motor truck enroute to Camp Humphreys. The car left the corner of King and Alfred streets shortly after midnight for the camp. All went well until the car was passing the south end of Hunting Creek bridge when a military motor police patrol truck was close behind. It is supposed that the driver of the motor truck in order to let the police patrol pass swered his car a little to the side of the road and in so doing his steering gear jammed and it precipitated the big motor truck down the embankment at the south end of the causeway, a distance of about 6 feet.

When the machine went over turned upside down throwing all of the men into about four feet of mud and water and pinned the two captains beneath the wreckage. They must have died instantly, for the skull of one was crushed and the other received internal injuries which are believed to have caused instant death.

The others killed only lived, it is thought, but a few minutes, all being badly injured.

Work of Rescuing Victims

Immediately following the accident those who were saved started in on the rescue work.

In the meantime the military police patrol was sent to Alexandria and Sergt. Scott and others went out in the Alexandria police patrol to give what aid they could.

The men who were in the motor truck started soon were on the work of rescuing their comrades. One by one the bodies of the dead men men were dragged from the mud and water and hauled to shore. They were rushed to the Alexandria Hospit with a view of seeing if there was any spark of life left. Hopes however, were doomed, for the men were all pronounced dead upon their arrival at that institution, most of them having been crushed and not drowned.

Captains Pinned Under Machine

The two captains as stated above were pinned beneath the big truck and in order to extricate their bodies it was necessary to turn the truck over. This was done by exactly twelve men who waded out up to their knees in mud and water and accomplished this feat.

News of the accident soon reached Alexandria and despite the lateness of the hour a number of motorists from this city went to the scene and gave what assistance they could in rescuing the bodies.

Greusome Scene

It was a rather grewsome scene as the bodies one by one were hauled silently from their watery grave to shore with the moon shining brightly and flickering lights from the motor vehicles standing nearby furnishing light to the rescuers.

In the meantime Camp Humphreys was communicated with and Maj. Charles L. Marsh arrived on the scene and took change of the work.

Maj. Marsh at once began an investigation and he completed the work of identifying the dead and making notifying the relatives of the dead men. All delatives of the men were notified by noon today.

The bodies are now at the mortuary chapel of Demaine and Son and it is expected that many of the relatives of the dead men will be here today or tomorrow and arrange to have the bodies shipped home.

Probe of Accident Started

In addition to Maj. Marsh the authorities at Camp Humphreys at once started a probe. Drivers of both trucks were taken in custody by the camp authorities and are held at the camp pending a complete investigation of the case. Maj. Marsh today declined to make public the names of the drivers pending the outcome of the investigation.

By order of Maj. C. A. F. Flager an investigation board was named this morning. It is composed of the following: Col. Robert P. Howell, chairman; Maj. Walter L. Simpson, Capt. E. R. Klam and Capt. John John H. Conroy, the last named of the medical corps.

All of the passengers in both trucks will be the only witnesses before the board in addition to the drivers of both machines. The drivers of the machines escaped serious injury.

At the camp today it was stated that none of the men apart from Turner was seriously hurt. It will be a couple of weeks before Turner is able to leave the hospital it is thought.

Victims Had Been Visiting

The men who were aboard the truck had been visiting here and in Washington. Some had been to parties and entertainments in both cities and they boarded the motor truck at King and Alfred streets. As already stated all went well until they came to cross the bridge. A grating sound was heard just as the machine started to go over and with out any warning whatever all who could were scrambling for their lives in the water and marsh into which they were so uncermoniously thrown. That the heads of some of the men struck rocks at the bottom there is no doubt.

Casts Gloom at Camp

All of the men killed were popular among the men at the camp and the news of their deaths was received with general regret among their associates at the camp and cast gloom among them.

Folowing the accident Coroner T. M. Jones of this city, was notified. However, the military authorities will have complete charge of the case it is sated.

HUGE LABOR UNION

Gompers Expects Workers of Europe And Two Americas to Consolidate

New ork, July 12.—Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, was among the passengers sailing yesterday on board the Mauretania. He will represent the American labor organizations at an interantional congress of the trade unions at Amsterdam, Holland. The congress is a revival of similar meetings held before the war, with headquarters in Berlin.

Mr. Gompers said that his principal object in going to Europe was to confer with European labor leaders in regard to the organization of the commission on international labor legislation, which will meet in Washington next October unnder the provisions of the peace treaty. He expressed the belief that during his trip a coalition of European, Pan-American and American labor organizations would be effected which would be greater than anything dreamed of in the past.

Mr. Gompers expects to spend seven weeks in Europe, and will visit Belgium, France and England, as well as Holland.

GYPSIES BECOME MISCHIEVOUS

Band Near The Alms House Cause Superintendent to Draw His Gun

ABOUT 75 IN THE CAMP

Alexandria City Policemen Make Record Run to the Scene, When the Nomads Scatter.

Joshua Sherwood, Overseer of the Alms House, had a thrilling experience yesterday. Several members of a party of so-called Gypsies, encamped a short distance south of the city farm, invaded the premises, for what purpose is not known, when the overseer appeared and ordered them off. Showing no disposition to obey the command, Mr. Sherwood repeated it in a more positive manner, and meeting with further defiance he was forced to draw his pistol and compel the itinerants to leave the place.

The nomads soon reappeared, however, heavily reinforced, nearly all the men in the camp having engaged in the second visit to the grounds. The overseer realizing he was powerless before such a gang, telephoned to the station house in this city, and a few minutes later the motor patrol wagon, bearing officers, was on its way to the scene.

The Gypsies had not anticipated such a movement, and as the motor patrol wagon drew near they made a precipitate retreat.

The Gypsies are encamped some distance beyond the city's limits, in Alexandria county, the officials of which would do well to make investigations of these imitators of the sons of Ishmael, who pitch their tents and strike them so suddenly.

Itinerants known as Gypsies are as ancient as the Pyramids of Egypt in which country they first appeared. They have been drones in the hive of nature ever since. Overseer Sherwood suggests that the band referred to above should be taken in charge and forced to take baths.

CHAUTAUQUA OPENS THIS AFTERNOON

Union Services Tomorrow Night at 8.15 In Big Tent

ELABORATE PROGRAM

Sessions at 2.15 and 8.15 p. m. During Week—Chancellor Bradford to Deliver Famous Address Tonight.

At a meeting last night of those of the guarantors of the Chautauqua who have showed any interest in its advent into Alexandria, there were also present three of the members of Chautauqua Association including Superintendent Bradley, Dr. Bond and Mr. Chas. Templer. It was decided to set the hour for the afternoon program at 2.30 and the evening programs at 8.15. Since there has been no mention made of the Sunday evening service, it was decided at this meeting that some arrangements be made with the local ministerial association to have union services at the Chautauqua tent tomorrow, Sunday night at 8.15 o'clock at which time the Pietro Mordelia Concert Company would furnish several sacred selections, familiar hymns of the church would be sung, and Chancellor Bradford would deliver a short address.

Those who have heard Chancellor Bradford say that to miss that gentleman's eloquence and pleasing personality would be losing much. The tent which is located on the grounds opposite the high school building was erected Friday night and everything is in readiness for the excellent program which are promised by the Chautauqua Association.

For the late-comers season tickets can be procured as late as Saturday evening and can be found on sale by those listed in a previous issue of the Gazette. From what can be gleaned from other cities having been favored by this organization, it is suggested that every citizen of Alexandria should avail himself or herself of the opportunity of enjoying this season of music, entertainment and enlightening information. The first two days program follows:

Program First Day

Afternoon—2.30 Series Lecture, Chautauqua Superintendent. Concert, Pietro Mordelia Company.

Evening,—8.15 Concert, Pietro Mordelia Company. Lecture, Chancellor Bradford, "Suncrowned Manhood."

Program Second Day

Sunday Evening 8.15—Union church service at the tent, singing of hymns devotion services by pastors, musical number by Pietro Mordelia Company. Address, Chancellor Bradford, All seats free.

PLENTY OF WORK FOR ALL

Unemployment Matter of Choice Rather Than Necessity, Says Colonel Woods

Washington, July 12.—Unemployment now is a matter of choice and not of necessity, according to a statement issued by Colonel Woods, assistant to the Secretary of War, in charge of finding jobs for discharged men, Throughout the country, municipal and private, enterprises require the labor of more men then they can command, he declares.

Massachusetts has $1,500,000 worth of highway work to be done and requires an additional 500 men at wages of from $3.50 to $5.00 per day.

South Carolina reports that a great shortage of unskilled labor exists.

Waukegon, Illinois, is clamoring for workers. There is a great dearth of labor there. Both men and women are desired.

Pennsylvania reports a shortage of common labor, Altoona alone requiring over 300. There is a particular demand for skilled mechanics.

DUAL TRAGEDY IN PETERSBURG

Attempt to Rifle Trousers of a Greek Ends in Fatal Shooting.

DETECTIVE A VICTIM

Men From Richmond Made Acquaintance of Hellenist After Reaching the Blockade City Yesterday.

Following an attempt to rifle the trousers of a Greek in a Petersburg hotel last night, Lloyd H. Long, was shot and killed, and he also shot and killed James M. Young, a Petersburg detective, who sought to arrest him.

Lloyd Clements, was held at the Petersburg police station as implicated in the robbery. The bullet pierced the heart of the detective, it was said Long was shot through the neck. Both shots flashed simultaneously, and the two men were dead before the police arrived. Clements stated, when questioned after the shooting that he lost consciousness when his pal and the police officer fell.

According to statements attributed by the police to Clements, he and Long came to Petersburg yesterday looking for work. They made the acquaintance of a Greek by the name of Gus Mellas, and he took them to a hotel on Sast Bank Street to spend the night.

Clements and the Greek were in one room, Long in another.

Later, according to the story the police have, Mellas was awakened by a noise in Long's room. On investigation, so the police claim, Mellas found one of the men in possession of his trousers. A fight ensued, in which Mellas was hit on the head with the butt of a pistol, according to the information the police have.

The noise in the room attracted other guests in the hotel and Clements and Long ran out of the hotel on East ank Street and down to Second Street to Bollingbrook.

They were stopped by several people whom they frightened off by shooting off their pistols. From Bollingbrook Street they took to Third Street, and when near the end of Third Street they were stopped by officer Young, who, seeing them with pistols in their hands, stopped them and told them that he was a police officer and to consider themselves under arrest.

Clements claimed to have surrendered his pistol, but Long refused and officer Young drew his pistol. From Clements' statement, Long resisted arrest, and he says two shots were fired almost at once. Clements claims to have lost consciousness at this point.

Officer Stephenson arrived just as the shoting took place and he also used his pistol. When the firing ceased. Officer Young was found to dead with a pistol shot wound through his heart. Long was also dead, a bullet having struck him in the neck.

ACCIDENT LAST NIGHT

The fearful disaster to an army truck last night within a few yards of Alexandria's southern boundary in which six men were killed has been the main theme of conversation hereabouts today. News of the acident was circulated in this city shortly after midnight, and city police and military police repaired to the scene immediately. It occurred at the southern approach to Hunting Creek bridg. The particulars are given elsewhere in the Gazette.

While traffic conducted by the government between Alexandria and Camp Humphreys had been enormous during the past year, it lessened considerably after the signing of the armistice, although the number of automobiles carrying private parties to that section has in no wise diminished, and on Sundays, when weather conditions are auspicious, hundreds of machines from this city, Washington, Baltimore and other nearby places follow each other in long strings. Considering these conditions, few serious accidents have occurred, although in some cases operators tempt Providence by operating machines at high speed, notwithstanding the fact that many sharp curves are in the road.

The highway from Alexandria to Camp Humphreys is one of the best in Virginia, and patronage is increasing daily. Safety first should be the slogan of all who use it.

The law requires lights on all vehicles moving at night—not only on automobiles, but on carriages, wagons, etc., drawn by horses. Observance of this law will minimize mishaps.

The Gazette this week suggested that children should be taught the traffic rules in this day of fast-flying motor cars. These rules were also printed in another section of the paper.

While these safeguards are primarily intended for cities, familiarity with the same is equally important to persons residing in the rural sections.

A few nights ago a serious accident occurred in Fairfax county, near Alexandria. A wagon contained a woman and her son who was struck and demolished by the automobile, and a woman seated in the latter was killed.

VICTORY NIGHT

The civilized world will rejoice with France next Monday, anniversary of the fall of the Bastile.

While absent in the flesh we will be present in spirit.

Not since the day when Napoleon the First was at his zenith will the French people be more enthused.

Bastile Day one year ago came on Sunday. The outcome of the war with Germany was at that time uncertain. In fact it was generally admitted that conditions did not look well for the allies at the time. The Goddess of Liberty, however, was behind the dark cloud, and four months later she emerged in all her grandeur flourishing her shining sword, while the slogan, "sic semper tyrannis," was shaking the pillars of the temple of autocracy.

Our noble ally, after waiting nearly half a century, sees her cruel neighbor in the dust and the despot who had bullied the world a fugitive in another land.

All things come to those who wait. The predatory Huns are no longer to be feared and the French are now enjoying the blessing of worshipping the Creator under their own vines and fig trees minus ahe anxiety they experience during the past fifty years.

Preparations for the great victory parade in Paris are rapidly nearing completion.

Joined with the anniversary this year will be the celebration of the victory for which France and her allies fought through four hard and bitter years.

The body of parading troops will extend over a distance of four and a half miles and units from all the allied armies will be included. From the famous victory arch built by Napoleon down to the Champs Elysses, the largest and most beautiful avenue in Paris, to the Place de la Concorde, wher stands the Crillon, headquarters of the American peace mission, and on to Madeleine Church, a thousand workmen and soldiers are enthusiastically busy erecting stands for the spectators and poles from which will flutter the allies' flags.

Flowers, laurels and endless strings of electric globes line the route of march. There will be no going to bed in Paris Monday night.

A DISCIPLINED NATION

America is the best disciplined nation in the world. The proof is overwhelming. For instance, there was conscription. Who would have thought asks a contemporary, that the people would consent to it without a referendum? Canadians would not, nor would the English or the Australians. They held that conscription, except on referendum, was repugnant to democratic institutions. But it was accepted in America. Now comes prohibition. Its acceptance forces on a large part of the population—the majority, for all anyone knows—a radical departure from their accustomed way of life. If anyone had suggested five years ago that this July 1 would see America dry—without approval of referendum—he would have been derided. Yet here it is, and come to stay. And never a word of vigorous protest; only a little grumbling here and there. It is discipline raised to a point never dreamed of in a democracy.

SPEEDS ON AT 4,000 FEET

London, July 12.—The Air Ministry announced last night that at 8:10 p. m., Greenwich time (4:10 p. m. New York time), the R-34 was flying at a height of 4,000 feet and above the clouds, and that in spite of one damaged engine she was going well. She has covered about 1,700 miles.

The big dirigible was about to descend to a lower level to have a look at the sea. All aboard were reported well.

At the moment that England is on the qui vive to welcome home the pioneer Atlantic sky cruiser, the most important announcement of further development of dirigible sky lanes by the production of monster successors to the R-34 come to thrill the public imagination.

Brig. Gen. Robert Groves, R. A. F., announces that the Air Ministry is preparing to send a gigantic dirigible, four times the size of the R-34 to the Cape of Good Hope via Egypt within a year. Pioneer parties are already completing an African chain of wireless and replenishing statons.

The dirigible which will fly to the Cape will displace 8,000,000 cubic feet and be capable of a 15,000 mile non stop flight at a speed of eighty miles an hour, wth a lifting power of fifty tons

Whites, 4 of Whom Are Wounded, Burn 5 Negro Homes

Longview, Texas, July 12.—Nearly two hundred members of the Texas National Guard from Dallas and Nacogdoches, ordered here yesterday by Governor W. P. Hobby to prevent further clashes between whites and negroes, arrived last night by train and automobile.

The situation remains quiet after a clash early yesterday in which four white men were wounded when a small party of whites was fired upon by negroes, estimated to have numbered about 75. Reports that one negro had been killed by shots returned by the whites could not be confirmed.

City and county officials expressed the belief that there would be no further trouble. Additional troops are held in readiness at Terrell. Texas rangers are expected to relieve the soldiers tomorrow.

The trouble started when twelve or fifteen white men were waylaid and fired upon in the negro section, where they had gone in search of F. L. Jones, a negro school teacher, accused of causing the publication of statements degratory to a young woman of this city in a negro newspaper published in Chicago. The white men returned the fire of the negroes, who were hidden. They withdrew when their ammunition was exhausted.

They soon returned with reinforcements, but the negroes had disappeared. Five of the principal negro residences were then burned. Local officials, unable to cope with the situation, called on the governor for aid. The excitement soon passed, however, and the situation has been quiet since. Search for two alleged negro leaders continued last night.

CHAPLIN'S BABY SON DEAD

Few See Charlie Escort White Casket to Grave

Los Angeles, Cal., July 12.—While thousands of movie fans throughout the world yesterday were laughing at his filmed antics, Charlie Chaplin rode beside a little white casket to the cemetery here and saw his baby boy laid to rest.

Hundreds of thousands in theatres saw "Charlie" as if in real life, doing the antics that have made him the "Prince of Laughter."

Few saw him at his beautiful home here in Hollywood late yesterday locking the door of the nursery he had fitted for "Charlie, Jr." and simultaneously locking his own dreams of days when he could teach the lad "some new steps."

His friends believe it will be many days before Charlie will turn out his tricks again.

Special Notice: Dr. Frederick Jacobson says that phosphates are just as essential to any woman who tires easily, is nervous or irritated, worn out or looks haggard and pale, to make a strong, robust, vigorous, healthy body, as they are to make corn, wheat or any vegetable plant grow strong and healthy. The luck of phosphates is the cause of all enemic conditions and the administration of 5-grain Argo-Phosphate Tablets will increase the strength and endurance 500 per cent in a few weeks time in many instances. A NERVOUS WRECK

From Three Years' Suffering. Says Cardui Made Her Well

Texas City, Tex.—In an interesting statement, Mrs. G. H. Schill, of this town, says: "For three years I suffered untold agony with my head. I was unable to do any of my work.

I just wanted to sleep all the time, for that was the only ease I could get, when I was asleep. I became a nervous wreck just from the awful suffering with my head.

I was so nervous that the least noise would make me jump out of my bed. I had no energy, and was unable to do anything. My son, a young boy, had to do all my household duties.

I was not able to do anything until I took Cardui. I took three bottles in all, and it surely cured me of those awful headaches. That has been three years ago, and I know the cure is permanent, for I have never had any headache since taking Cardui.

Nothing relieved me until I took Cardui. It did wonders for me."

Try Cardui for your troubles—made from medicinal ingredients recommended in medical books as being of benefit in female troubles, and 40 years of use has proven that the books are right. Begin taking Cardui today. NC-134

MRS. MOONEY AT CAPIAL

Unable to See President in Husband's Behalf

Washinton, July 12.—Mrs. Rena Mooney, wife of Thomas J. Mooney, who is serving a life sentence after his conviction in connection with the preparedness day bomb explosion in San Francisco, called at the White House yesterday and conferred with Secretary Tumulty. It was understood she desired to see President Wilson in the interest of her husband.

Secretary Tumulty explained to Mrs. Mooney that the President had done everythin it was possible for him to do in the case of her husband. He added, however, that the President would be willing to receive and read any petition she desired to submit.

Upon leaving the White House Mrs. Mooney went to the Department of Labor to see Secretary Wilson.

REO

A Business Getter

A REO "SPEED WAGON" is more than a mere adjunct to your business.

IT DOES MORE than merely supplant the old time, slow epensive, uncertain horse equipment.

IT DOES MORE than merely hold the trade you have.

IT IS A SALESMAN in its own way, for in these days when "time is the essence" of every contract, and the one big consideration in every transaction between men, the speedy service performed by this Reo brings the trade to you.

IT DOESN'T MATTER whether you are a farmer, or a truck gardener dealing in perishable articles; or a merchant—either wholesale or retail—competing for trade with alert rivals;—

HOURS COUNT—yes and minutes!—and the difference between profit and loss frequently depends upon your delivery system.

HE WHO HAS the best delivery service—the quickest and the most dependable—has the call.

NOT SPEED ALONE—though its speed possibilities have proven its greatest advantage, hence the name;—

BUT RELIABILITY— that reliability that is Reo;—

THESE QUALITIES have so thoroughly demonstrated themselves that our one problem is to obtain enough "Speed Wagons" to supply all those who want Reos.

FOR REMEMBER THIS: You can't always get a Reo on the minute. Demand is tremendous—always has been for Reos.

SO ONLY WAY is to place your order at once—then we can give you a definite delivery date.

BUT DON'T DELAY—there are not, can not be, enough Reos to go 'round.

MORRIS LEAVES FOR PRISON

Magistrate Sullivan's Slayer Taken to Richmond Penitentiary.

Charlottesville, Va., July 12.—Edgar Morris, the Green county mountaineer, recently found guilty by an Albemarle jury of shooting to death Magistrate Bluford E. Sullivan in the courthouse at Standardville last March was taken to ichmond yesterday to begin his 18-year term in the State penitentiary.

During his two months' incarceration in the city jail Morris was not left alone for a single moment. Two special deputies watched over him day and night. He gave the guards no trouble, however. Former Deputy Sheriff George M. Morris came over from Standardville Sunday and bade his son farewell. "Behave yourself while in prison," he cautioned, "and it will be much easier to secure a pardon for you." Other relatives including two favorite cousins, visited Morris Monday and Tuesday bringing him good things to eat.

To all the prisoner appeared very cheerful, saying that he was anxious to begin his term. Before leaving jail Morris posed for several pictures which he distributed among the deputies and others who had shown an interest in him. Two of his five sisters got pictures.

TOUGH ON ELDERBERRIES

Thirsty .West .Virginians Use all Blossoms for Wine

Wheeling, W. Va., July 12.—There will be no elderberry crop in West Virginia this year. The drought has created such a big demand for the elderberry blossoms that they are all being plucked before they can develop into berries.

Elderberry blossom wine is said to be about as fine stuff as has been made since prohibition was adopted, and the blossoms are in great demand.

The Good Will of an Army

The written and spoken word of American Army men, at home and abroad, has given the very name of Dodge Brothers Motor Car a new and a stirring significance.

THE VOLUNTEERS OF AMERICA

Under the Leadership if

GENERAL AND MRS. BALLINGTON BOOTH

Dodge Automobile Company,
Detroit, Michigan. May 12, 1919.

Gentlemen:

Several times while traveling through France and Germany I was inspired to exclaim, "I really must write to the Dodge Company, when I get home and tell them what I think of their car". Now, that I am home that intention has not weakened. I have spent the whole of this winter in France and Germany amid the mud and rain and shell torn roads of the battle front, and later over the steep mountains and through the narrow gorges between the Luxenberg and the Rhine.

General Pershing gave me for my use while I served the A. E. F. a Dodge car. With my little company of entertainers I was enabled to go to many of the boys in isolated spots who had no transportation to send for me and would have gone without entertainments had I not had my own car. We traveled hundreds of miles, some times over almost impassible roads. We scaled mountains, where at every minute we feared our little car might balk at further pressure. We never had a moment's trouble. I can say most emphatically that the Dodge gave splendid service and held out where we had found other cars disabled by the road side.

When my service with the Army was through and I had to return the car to them I felt as if I was parting with a personal friend and wished that it could run me down to Brest and be taken aboard the transport and sail for home with me.

From what I have heard from many sources I believe that others have had just as successful experiences with the Dodge at the front as we have had.

Believe me,
Very cordially yours,
(Signed) MAUD B. BOOTH.

THE PIETRO MORDELIA COMPANY

Italian Musicians AT CHAUTAUQUA

The Italians have an enviable reputation as musicians. They take to it as a duck does to water. Their music is most delightful. Within the last few years they have developed a big hit in musical instruments. It is known as the "piano-accordian." It is a queer instrument and in the hands of a master musician such as Pietro Mordelia, is capable of affording most pleasing music. Be sure to hear it at Chautauqua, on the opening day.

During the past two years on our Chautauqua and previous to this wherever they appeared, Pietro Mordelia and his company, consisting of the Misses Golding and Buck, were an unqualified success in every town. Miss Golding is an artist with the violin. Miss Buck, as an entertainer and vocalist, is sure to please. And Mr. Mordelia himself is capable of holding an audience an entire evening without assistance. He is a musician and novelty entertainer without a superior in his chosen field. A real treat is in store for lovers of music and entertainment on the opening afternoon and evening of Chautauqua.

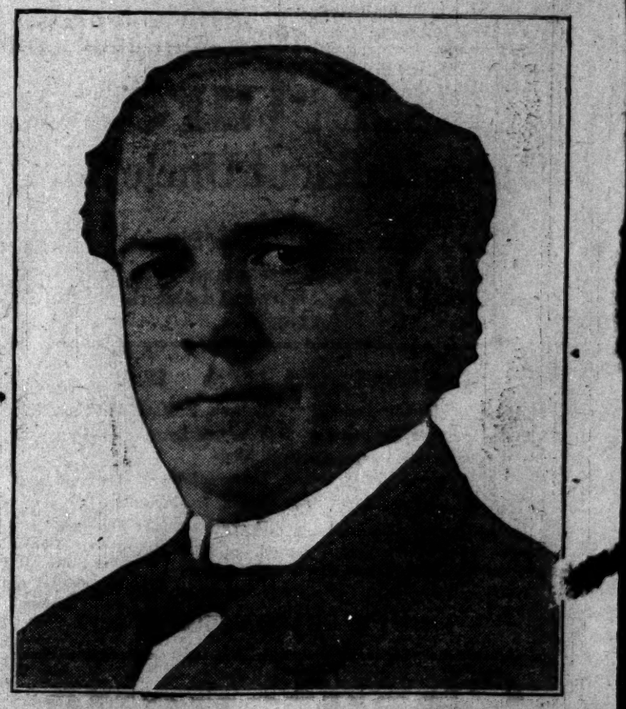
ALEXANDRIA CHAUTAUQUA TONIGHT

"Suncrowned Manhood"

Lecture by

Chancellor George H. Bradford

AT CHAUTAUQUA



One of the men chosen to introduce the first Chautauqua program into the continent of Australia was Chancellor Bradford. The management knew that he would make good, and he has. His first engagement after returning to America is with our Association.

Let's look a minute at this man Bradford—this great scholar—and man of the world—and see what he has done. After spending eighteen years as a University student and University Chancellor, he decided to enter the University of the Universe and attempt to translate Life instead of Latin. He says that he would rather know men than trees, and while it is a great thing to associate twenty-five adjectives with the noun in Greek, and twenty-five adverbs with the verb in Hebrew, it is a better thing to associate fifty men in the task of making the community better.

Winter before last he lectured in twenty-four states of the Union and last winter he spent in Australia. This summer he comes to your Chautauqua platform with a new message, entitled "Suncrowned Manhood." This lecture affords him ample scope for his big ideas and far reaching purposes. He presents his dynamic philosophy of life in a striking way.

He resembles William Jennings Bryan not only in appearance but also in eloquence. Hear him the first night of your Chautauqua.

BIG THRONG AT HEARING

Mrs. Bertha Pittenger and Arthur Wilson Charged With Killing Former's Husband.

Frederick, Md., July 12.—With the Circuit Court room packed with spectators, the preliminary hearing in the case of Mrs. Bertha Pittenger and Arthur Wilson, charged with the murder of the former's husband, William H. Pittenger of near Johnsville, this county, was held yesterday before Justice of the Peace Alban M. Wood.

The club with which Pittenger is supposed to have been killed was exhibited by Sheriff Charles H. Klipp, who testified that he found it near where Wilson said that he and Pittenger had quarreled and the latter was ordered away under threat of arrest.

Mrs. Pittenger claims she had gone to the Wilson home for protection. The club is a part of a broken piece of farm machinery and is rounded. Dr. John H. Messler, who was the coroner's physician and exhumed the body, stated that the wound was evidently made by an instrument with a rounded surface.

He said that the bullet had entered the abdomen and was plainly not fired at a near range, there being no powder marks. The wound did not bleed.

SIGNS OF QUITTING FIGHT

Senator Swanson Admits Amendments to Treaty May be in Order

There were visible signs of weakening yesterday in the ranks of the Democratic Senators who have been insisting upon ratification of the peace treaty and the league of nations covenant without reservations or amendment.

It is strongly intimated that some of the reservations to be proposed by the Republican anti-league Senators will be accepted by the Democrats to save the treaty from rejection.

Seantor Swanson, one of the foremost pro-league Senators and a member of the Foreign Relations Committee, said in an interview that certain of the reservations may be supported by the Democrats. He added, however, that they will not accept any changes which would render the covenant "an egg with only a shell and nothing in it which would hatch."

This statecemnt by Seantor Swanson is highly significant and is the first intimation that has come from teh administration side that compromises with the foes of the league might be agreed to in order to make final ratification of the treaty possible.

SUN SET AT 10 O'CLOCK

Washington, July 12.—Temperature five degrees below freezing was encountered, and sunset was observed at 10 p. m., Thursday night over Arcadia, Fla., by Lieutenant Charles Chauncey and Sergeant Thomas Cook, two aviators who took an army plane 20,000 feet up from Carlstrora Field at that hour. An eighty-five minute flight was made as an experiment in seking high altitudes after darkness, the air service announced in giving out the report.

FORD COMPANY'S PROFITS

Amounted to $54,000,000 in Nine Months, According to Official

Mount Clemens, Mich., July 12.—Profits of the Ford Motor Company for nine months ending last April amounted to $54,000,000, Edsel Ford testified yesterday in his father's million dollar libel suit against the Chicago Tribune. When he could not bring the profits figures up to date he was requested to have them in court Monday.

Ford said he had been an officer of the company for four years and had worked in the shops four years, learning the business. He said his company had manufactured army tanks made of a special steel, just as strong, but half the weight of those ordinarily used.

THEATRES

RICHMOND THEATRE

The attraction at the Richmond tonight will be "Playthings of Passion" starring the wonderful emotional actress Kitty Gordon. This picture was pronounced by the moving picture critics of Washington as one of the best pictures shown there for some time and it was seen by large crowds at each performance.

INGOMAR—"The Master Man."

Despite all efforts at reform and "house cleaning" that political Augean stables still exist in certain sections in the thesis upon which is based "The Master Man," the first of the Frank Keenan Special Productions, which has been secured by the manager of the Ingomar Theatre for showing at the Ingomar tonight.

"The Master Man," is a story of political life, of the "powers behind the throne," of grafters, ward-heelers, bosses, and all the other unhealthy concomitants in separable from corrupt politics. Mr. Keenan plays the part of the State attorney general, a master hand at political scheming, whose entire graft built edifice tumbles to the ground when there enters in this life teh one influence which can soften and bend that will of iron—a woman.

GRAND THEATRE

"The Blinding Trail," a Universal special attraction starring Monroe Salisbury, will be shown at the Grand Theatre tonight.

Salisbury has the part of "Big Jim" McKenzie, lumber boss. He marries the daughter of his employer, and is stricken blind. His fickle wife flirts with McKenzie's foreman, leading up to a smashing big climax in which Mc Kenzie, despite his affliction, puts up one of the most thrilling fights ever seen on the screen. Also Ham-Bud comedy.

Best Motor Oils

CORRECT lubricants are the most economical—sometimes in the beginning—always in the end. The engine of your car is the propelling power. It is the most important single part. And it is highly probable that the oils you use exert a larger influence on your engine than any other feature.

Protection for Your Engine

Keep your car out of the repair shop by keeping the right oil in your engine.

The right oil need not be the most expensive. But it is oil that has been tested. It has been proved by its action on many cars in many kinds of service. That is the kind of oil we sell. You can make no mistake in filling up here always.

To Our Patrons

Alexandria, Va., June 2, 1919.

In line with our progressive banking methods, and to meet the demands of our patrons, we are installing on July 1st, an up-to-date Safe Deposit Department, under the personal supervision of one of our officers.

This has been made necessary from the fact that a large number of our depositors owning Liberty Bonds and other securities desire a safe place for their keeping.

It is our plan to enlarge the number of Safe Deposit Boxes, and make a rental charge to meet the operating expenses of this Department. This charge will become effective July 1st, 1919, and a bill will be sent out at that time to the holders of boxes, and if any desire to make any change we will be glad to have them call before the bills are rendered for the ensuing year.
